MANY FARMERS ATTEND SEARS, NICHOLS PARTY

Reichelderfer, Lewis, Brown and Lancashire Give Talks To Gathering.

The dinner given at the Elks club Wednesday evening by the Sears-Nichols Canning Corp. for its growers and patrons to create a more intense feeling of cooperation between the canning company and its growers was a huge success with about 125 plates being served.

Everyone of the farmers and friends of the Sears-Nichols Corp. who attended the meeting went away with a better knowledge of the care of his soil and of ways to obtain better results from his crop which increases his cash return to a large extent.

The meeting was in charge of Col. John Woods who introduced Evan Reichelderfer, production manager of the company, as toastmaster of the evening.

QUOTES FIGURES

Mr. Reichelderfer in a few words disclosed figures compiled by the company for 1929. He said "In 1929 we spent approximately $75,000 in Pickaway-co for sweet corn, peas and other raw materials. For wages at the Circleville plant we spent $50,000 and for taxes and for supplies purchased in Circleville we spent over $10,000. Our estimated pack at the Circleville plant was about 200,000 cases. The total estimated pack for the entire Sears-Nichols Corp. in 1930 is about 75,000 cases. The value of the total pack of the Sears-Nichols Corp. is close to $1,250,000."

Mr. Reichelderfer introduced the county farm agent, H. Stanley Lewis, who outlined the relative value of the grower, the canner and the county agent and extensive men of the Ohio State University to each other.

Lewis, in his interesting way, gave an outline of what is grown for the canner in Pickaway-co. He said "In Pickaway-co there are 10,000 acres of land used for sweet corn alone, of which more than 8,000 acres is devoted to the canner. There are 2,000 acres of peas, 600 acres of lima beans, 100 acres of spinach, 100 acres of beets, 50 acres of tomatoes, and 1,000 tons of pumpkins. This output represents over one-half million of acres in Pickaway-co."

O. S. U. MEN PRESENT

The speakers who followed Lewis were Dr. H. D. Brown, professor of vegetable gardening at Ohio State university, and E. R. Lancashire, also a member of that staff at the university.

Brown's talk dealt with soil treatment for different kinds of soil. His address was very instructive to the farmers and after he had finished permitted the guests to ask questions which he answered for them.

Lancashire had his audience in an uproar a great part of the time but after that had calmed down he explained the growing of sweet corn and told of a contest which was being sponsored to improve the quality and raise the average yield per acre of sweet corn grown as a canning crop in Ohio. Each grower is to enter five acre plots of sweet corn which will be judged at harvest time by Ohio State men along with the county agent.

Prizes have been arranged for this contest, which is state-wide, the first being a watch valued at $150 and two cash prizes of $50 and $25.

The chicken dinner which was served by the ladies of the Logan Elm Grange was delicious.

HOLD SERVICES FOR MRS. PENN

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Penn, aged 72, a lifelong resident of Kingston, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Scott, in Kingston Tuesday morning, were held Thursday at 2 p. m., at the Methodist church in Kingston with Rev. Floyd S. Webb officiating. Burial was made in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Kingston.

She is survived by six daughters Mrs. Ethel Scott, Kingston, Mrs. Anna Brown and Mrs. Beatrice Brown, Kinnikinnick; Mrs. Lenora Courier, Chillicothe; Mrs. Mabel Crouse, of Columbus, and Mrs.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN COLUMBUS

Mrs. Emma Snyder, 60, Who Left Here 13 Years Ago, Is Summoned.

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Snyder, aged 60, a former resident of Circleville, who died at her home in Columbus Tuesday, were held Thursday at 1 p. m. at the Schoedinger chapel in Columbus followed by burial in Forest cemetery.

Mrs. Snyder removed from Circleville 13 years ago and was the widow of Charles Snyder, a former cement contractor here. She is survived by one son, Charles of Columbus.

MYOCARDITIS DEATH CAUSE

Mrs. Lucy Bumgarner, Aged 23, Dies in Columbus Early Thursday.

Lucy Margaret Bumgarner, aged 23, wife of Willard Bumgarner, 170 Ponto-ave, Columbus, O., died at University hospital, Columbus, at 1:30 a. m. Thursday from myocarditis.

She was the daughter of Cyrus and Myrtle Tatum Collins, and was born in Deer Creek-twp, Pickaway-co., Sept. 8, 1906.

She was united in marriage to Willard Bumgarner on April 19, 1924. The husband, parents and the following brothers and sisters survive: Elmer, Walter, Raymond, Emma, Joseph, Virgil and Edward.

The funeral service will be held from the Darbyville M. E. church Saturday at 2:00 p. m. by Rev. W. B. Rose, and interment in the Mulhensberg-twp. cemetery by C. E. Hill, funeral director.

COLORED MAN HELD TO JURY

George Link, colored, was bound over to the grand jury under $500 bond by Mayor B. T. Hedges late Wednesday after he was arrested on a charge of a tempting burglary and larceny at the residence of Jane Hitt, E. Franklin-st.

Link had helped erect a clothes-pole in the backyard of the Hitt residence and while working there had evidently seen meat hanging in the out-kitchen of Mrs. Hitt. He returned that evening and while breaking into the out-kitchen made a noise which Mrs. Hitt heard. She went into the out-building, thinking it was possible a cat, and while searching for the cat, found the colored man in the dark. He told her not to be afraid and when she turned the light on she recognized Link. She immediately swore out an affidavit and he was arrested. He has been removed to the

ABANDON HOPE FOR RECOVERY

Taft Is Growing Constantly Weaker According To His Physician.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Hope had been abandoned today for the former Chief Justice William Howard Taft.

Growing constantly weaker, it appeared just a matter of how long the patient's strength would hold out against the complication of diseases which caused Dr. Francis R. Hagner to order the jurist to resign from the supreme bench. At the White House, President Hoover was being kept advised as to Taft's condition, and the absence of any word from the bedside during the night led to the hope that the sick man had a fair night.

Dr. Hagner expected today to be better able to determine the patient's exact condition, he said.

Mrs. Helen Taft Manning, the former President's daughter, came here several days ago from Bryn Mawr, Pa., and the two sons are reported enroute from Cincinnati, and should arrive late today.

A bulletin issued shortly after 11 a. m., said:

"The former chief justice is in a critical condition. There is no hope for his recovery and any improvement will only be temporary."

This was followed by an informal statement by Dr. Hagner that there is no way of forecasting how long the former justice might survive. It might be hours and it may be his heart, weakened by strain will sustain him for several days.

News that all hope had been abandoned spread quickly throughout the capital and caused general sorrow.

President Hoover was notified at the White House, and immediately he issued a cancellation of the plans for the formal annual congressional reception which was to have been held at the White House tonight.

Mr. Hoover's statement read: "In view of the physicians' statement as to the critical condition of the former president of the United States Mr. Taft, the president and Mrs. Hoover regretfully have canceled the reception that was to have been given the House of Representatives this evening."

COUNTY TOURNAMENT IN FINAL WEEK

The first games of the final week of Pickaway county's annual high school tournament will be played in the C.A.C. gym this evening and late this afternoon many fans who wanted to be certain of obtaining choice seats for these crucial games this evening, were swarming into Circleville.

Action and plenty of it is booked for this evening when four games will be played, the first starting at 7 p. m. and the final one being ended about 10:30 p. m.

The first game this evening will be between Scioto-twp's Lion-killers and Walnut boys, as yet unseen in the tournament. After the great game Scioto played against Ashville last Saturday morning, they have received much comment this week and in the minds of many the team which wins the tournament must defeat Scioto. Scioto's two forwards, Lamb and McClure, proved thorns in the back of Ashville all through their game and seem to be the lads to stop if Scioto is going to be defeated.

The second game will see Darby, victors over Washington, meeting Saltcreek girls, another team which has as yet not played in the tournament. The result of this game is a toss-up for each team has won practically the same number of games during the year.

The third game will be between Perry and New Holland boys, and what a battle this game should turn out to be. Perry had a battle on his hands to defeat Saltcreek last Saturday while New Holland took the measure of the Darby boys in a Saturday morning affair. Hughes, crack Perry forward, was on the sidelines last week with an injured knee and much of the Perry success depends upon whether Hughes is able to play or not.

Ashville and Monroe girls play the final game this evening with the Ashvilleites favored to a large extent. Monroe defeated Perry in an exciting game Saturday but Ashville's defeat of New Holland was much more impressive.

LUTHERAN THREE-ACT PLAY RECEIVES MUCH APPLAUSE

"A Poor Married Man," a three act comedy play presented by the Lutheran League at the Lutheran Parish House Wednesday evening for the purpose of raising money for the indebtedness of the parish house was received with great applause and satisfaction by the audience which packed the parish house.

The play was directed by Gladys Troutman and he must be given due credit for his work. Music was furnished by the high school orchestra under the direction of C. F. Zaenglein.

The story concerned married life and its troubles. Professor I. B. Wise visited Niagara Falls and met Mrs. Iona Ford and her beautiful daughter, Zoie. After a week's courtship the professor marries Zoie.

And then the troubles begin. The cast of characters included Hilaire Haacker, Ned Dresbach, Gaylord Rose, Jack Chalfin, Gladys Troutman, Eleanor Fitzpatrick, Ida Walters, Cleo Brown and Margaret Carter.

SCIOTO WATER FLOODS ROAD WEST OF CITY

Snow and Colder Weather Throughout State Brings Much Discomfort.

The Scioto river had crept over the Williamsport-pk. west of Circleville Thursday having reached the 13 feet four inch stage, according to Dr. H. R. Clarke, weather observer. The river will continue to rise slightly according to report coming from farther north in the state because of heavy rains there last night.

The temperature had dropped 13 degrees from Wednesday's 48 Thursday with a possibility that it will still go lower.

By International News Service Snow and colder weather added more discomfort to water-soaked Ohio today as attempts were made to drain flooded highways and combat rising waters that have caused considerable damage and threatened hundreds of homes from Lake Erie to the Ohio river.

Fed by the water of melting snow, the Ohio river continued to creep slowly upward, according to reports today. A crest of 28 feet was forecast by rivermen at Martin's Ferry. At East Liverpool the river passed the 26-foot stage. Flood stage is 33 feet.

Sandusky, along Lake Erie, fell victim to serious damage when a sudden rise in the water threatened hundreds of buildings along the waterfront. Houses on the north shore of Kellys Island were undermined and battered down by breaking waves.

Breakwaters at Rye beach were damaged, and other sections along the lake reported that huge strips of land were washed away by the rising waters.

Scores of roads throughout the entire state were blocked by flooding waters. Especially bad conditions were reported around Canton, Alliance, East Liverpool and Wooster.

Nearly 100 telephones were put out of commission in Alliance during the recent hailstorm when lightning struck a high tension wire running to Canton.

HILL IS FINED FOR STEALING

N. and W. Recommends Fine and Costs Suspended On Good Behavior.

A sentence of $1 costs of the court, and an additional sentence of 10 days in the county jail on a charge of stealing coal, was suspended against Tom Hill, of Circleville, Thursday by Probate Judge E. A. Brown upon request of the Norfolk and Western railroad.

Hill was arrested at his home when 400 pounds of coal alleged to be stolen from the N. and W. tracks, were found in his coal shed. He pleaded guilty to the charge, although he said the coal had been hauled to his place, and that although he knew it was stolen, had not used it.

Hill was very persistent about taking the case to trial, that reason the N. and W. recommended a suspended sentence on good behavior.

COUNTY JAIL HAS INCREASE

Six Federal Prisoners Sent Here By United States Court.

The population of the county jail was increased Tuesday when six federal prisoners were sent here from the United States Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas. They had been sentenced to serve 30 days in jail.

Murderer To Die At Ohio Pen Friday

Dr. James H. Snook dies "sometime tomorrow." Governor Cooper refused to grant him a stay of execution and he also refused to commute the death sentence to life imprisonment.

The wife whom Dr. James Howard Snook wronged when he carried on a three-year illicit love affair with Miss Theora Hix, for whose murder he is scheduled to die in the electric chair here Friday, visited Governor Myers Y. Cooper at the capitol shortly before noon today.

She was accompanied by a man who, it is believed, is the pastor of the church which he has regularly attended.

Cooper allowed none in his office except Mrs. Snook and her companion. It is presumed the loyal wife of the former philandering professor at Ohio State university, would make a desperate plea for a further stay of execution for her husband.

Dr. James H. Snook's notoriety may cut his life short by a few hours, it appeared here today as attorneys for the former highly-respected college professor made last minute preparations for another attempt to save the man from the electric chair.

Sentenced to die sometime between midnight tonight and midnight tomorrow, Dr. Snook, who murdered his co-ed sweetheart, Miss Theora Hix, 24, may be forced to take the death walk through "the little green door" several hours before the usual execution time, due to the intense notoriety his interest in the sensational case.

Usually condemned men are electrocuted at about 7:30 o'clock in the evening, but Warden P. E. Thomas, who wishes to avoid the milling of crowds around the penitentiary, may move the electrocution forward a few hours, perhaps several hours. This was the general belief.

NOT DEFINITE

Officials at the state institution refused to say when Dr. Snook would "ride the thunderbolt of the law." In reply to all questions, they said, "Sometime between midnight tonight and midnight tomorrow."

Attorneys will make a last desperate effort to save the doomed man at a hearing which is to be held before Governor Myers Y. Cooper this afternoon, but Dr. Snook's chances of a stay of execution or a commutation of sentence were quoted as "one in a thousand" in official circles.

If the governor refuses to intervene, attorneys for the man may seek a writ of habeas corpus in the federal district court. E. O. Ricketts, chief of the murderer's defense counsel, said that the writ could be sought on the grounds that "the condemned man has been deprived of due process of law as provided by the federal constitution and that the trial was rushed and mob spirit prevailed throughout the case."

Ricketts has carried unsuccessfully the case through state courts and to the U. S. supreme tribunal and it appeared unlikely that entry into the federal court on a habeas corpus writ would stay the execution.

The attorney who visited the killer in death row yesterday, said that Dr. Snook appeared "unperturbed."

But later when Mrs. Helen Snook, a friend of the man who betrayed her by setting up a "honeymoon" with his co-ed sweetheart, visited the unrepentant murderer in the cell of the Leavenworth penitentiary, she said that Dr. Snook was showing signs of having a change of heart.

Warden Thomas, of the state penitentiary, has been confined to his bed for the last several days because of illness and it is doubtful whether he will attend to the execution.

IS ADMINISTRATRIX

Mrs. Mary Hoyman was named administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Joseph Hoyman, in the probate court here Thursday. The estate is estimated to be worth $8,500. Appraisers were J. H. Peters, M. I. Brown and Frank Hanson.

Dr. James Howard Snook (above) ended a long fight for his freedom Thursday when Gov. Y. Cooper refused to grant a review of the trial for the murder of Miss Theora Hix, (above), Ohio State University co-ed.

electrocution." He may send deputy warden in his place.

Mrs. Snook visited her husband this morning and remained with him for a little more than a hour. She was very attractive dressed, but her spirits appeared smothered beneath the grief which she has borne so well.

As she came from the cell in which Dr. Snook is confined, "death row," her face was ghastly.

An appeal to Dr. James H. Snook to "make a true and clean confession of his sins," and that he "accept the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior," was telegraphed to the confessed slayer of Theora Hix at Ohio State penitentiary here today by the Reverend Raymond J. Rutt, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church at Bradenton, Florida.

Mrs. and Mrs. Melvin T. Hix, parents of the murdered Ohio State university co-ed, are members of that church.

Reverend Rutt, who said that he represented his congregation in sending the telegram, suggested that Dr. Snook read John 1:9 from the Bible before he goes to the death in the electric chair sometime tomorrow.

She immediately went into the man's office of the penitentiary for a conference with prison officials. Every day since the former professor has been confined in the prison Mrs. Snook has visited him from 1 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

"It takes a live fish to swim up stream and a dead one can float down."

Which way are you going? Answer this question and you will know to which class you belong. In every race of this kind there are certain candidates who "float" along trusting to luck to win, while the "live" ones get busy and paddle to victory. In every part of this territory there is still a chance for some new entrant to advance to the front, for absolutely no one candidate is sure of a prize. Perhaps right now someone in the background is quietly working away, suddenly to appear at the top of the heap with a good batch of votes, while the others thought her safely asleep on the job.

There are several in this campaign now, who are just getting started with the working spirit, and right now is the time to take that little old receipt book and make a house to house canvass for The Herald subscriptions. Several will be in far different places from where they now stand in a very short while. The campaign is just nicely started, and thousands

Snow and Colder Weather Throughout State Brings Much Discomfort.

The Scioto river had crept over the Williamsport-pk, west of Circleville Thursday having reached the 13 feet four inch stage, according to Dr. H. R. Clarke, weather observer. The river will continue to rise slightly according to report coming from farther north in the state because of heavy rains there last night.

The temperature had dropped 13 degrees from Wednesday's 48 Thursday with a possibility that it will still go lower.

By International News Service

Snow and colder weather added more discomfort to water-soaked Ohio today as attempts were made to drain flooded highways and combat rising waters that have caused considerable damage and threatened hundreds of homes from Lake Erie to the Ohio river.

Fed by the water of melting snow, the Ohio river continued to creep slowly upward, according to reports today. A crest of 28 feet was forecast by rivermen at Martin's Ferry. At East Liverpool the river passed the 26-foot stage. Flood stage is 33 feet.

Sandusky, along Lake Erie, fell victim to serious damage when a sudden rise in the water threatened hundreds of buildings along the waterfront. Houses on the north shore of Kellys Island were undermined and battered down by breaking waves.

Breakwaters at Rye beach were damaged, and other sections along the lake reported that huge strips of land were washed away by the rising waters.

Scores of roads throughout the entire state were blocked by flooding waters. Especially bad conditions were reported around Canton, Alliance, East Liverpool and Wooster.

Nearly 100 telephones were put out of commission in Alliance during the recent hailstorm when lightning struck a high tension wire running to Canton.

HILL IS FINED FOR STEALING

N. and W. Recommends Fine and Costs Suspended On Good Behavior.

A sentence of $1, costs of the court, and an additional sentence of 10 days in the county jail on a charge of stealing coal, was suspended against Tom Hill, of Circleville, Thursday by Probate Judge E. A. Brown upon request of the Norfolk and Western railroad.

Hill was arrested at his home when 400 pounds of coal, alleged to be stolen from the N. and W. tracks, were found in his coal shed. He pleaded guilty to the charge, although he said the coal had been hauled to his place, and that although knowing it was stolen, had accepted it.

Hill was very repentant about taking the coal and for that reason the N. and W. recommended a suspended sentence on good behavior.

COUNTY JAIL HAS INCREASE

Six Federal Prisoners Sent Here By United States Court Judge.

The population of the Pickaway-co jail was increased by six Wednesday when that number of prisoners were sent here by the United States Federal court after they had been sentenced in Columbus.

The prisoners are: Frank Braga, sentenced to four months in the county jail; Roy Edwin Ervin, Sylvan Leroy Hovick, Neil Summer-ville, Robert Jones and Roy Flint, each sentenced to serve 30 days in jail.

Murderer To Die At Ohio Pen Friday

Dr. James H. Snook dies "sometime tomorrow." Governor Cooper refused to grant him a stay of execution and he also refused to commute the death sentence to life imprisonment.

The wife whom Dr. James Howard Snook wronged when he carried on a three-year illicit love affair with Miss Theora Hix, for whose murder he is scheduled to die in the electric chair here Friday, visited Governor Myers Y. Cooper at the capitol shortly before noon today.

She was accompanied by a man who, it is believed, is the pastor of the church which he has regularly attended.

Cooper allowed none in his office except Mrs. Snook and her companion.

It is presumed the loyal wife of the former philandering professor at Ohio State university, would make a desperate plea for a further stay of execution for her husband.

Dr. James H. Snook's notoriety may cut his life short by a few hours, it appeared here today as attorneys for the former highly-respected college professor made last minute preparations for another attempt to save the man from the electric chair.

Sentenced to die sometime between midnight tonight and midnight tomorrow, Dr. Snook, who murdered his co-ed sweetheart, Miss Theora Hix, 24, may be forced to take the death walk through "the little green door" several hours before the usual execution time, due to the intense notoriety his interest in the sensational case.

Usually condemned men are electrocuted at about 7:30 o'clock in the evening, but Warden P. E. Thomas, who wishes to avoid the milling of crowds around the penitentiary, may move the electrocution forward a few hours, perhaps several hours. This was the general belief.

NOT DEFINITE

Officials at the state institution refused to say when Dr. Snook would "ride the thunderbolt of the law." In reply to all questions, they said, "Sometime between midnight tonight and midnight tomorrow."

Attorneys will make a last desperate effort to save the doomed man at a hearing which is to be held before Governor Myers Y. Cooper this afternoon, but Dr. Snook's chances of a stay of execution or a commutation of sentence were quoted as "one in a thousand" in official circles.

If the governor refuses to intervene, attorneys for the man may seek a writ of habeas corpus in the federal district court, E. O. Ricketts, chief of the murderer's defense counsel, said that the writ could be sought on the grounds that "the condemned man has been deprived of due process of law as provided by the federal constitution and that the trial was rushed and mob spirit prevailed throughout the case."

Ricketts has carried unsuccessfully the case through state courts and to the U. S. supreme tribunal, and it appeared unlikely that entry into the federal court on a habeas corpus writ would stay the execution.

The attorney, who visited the killer in death row yesterday, said that Dr. Snook appeared "unconcerned."

But later, when Mrs. Helen Snook, wife of the man who betrayed her by setting up a "love nest" for his illicit sweetheart, visited her once-unfaithful husband in the "aisle of the living dead," she returned weeping and guards said that Dr. Snook has also shown signs of having been crying.

Warden Thomas, of the state penitentiary, has been confined to his bed for the last several days because of illness, and it is doubtful whether he will attend the

IS ADMINISTRATRIX

Mrs. Mary Hoyman was named administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Joseph Hoyman, Walnut-twp, Thursday in probate court. The estate is estimated to be worth $8,800. Appraisers were J. H. Peters, M. I. Brown and Frank Hinson.

Dr. James Howard Snook (above) ended a long fight for his freedom Thursday when Gov. Y. Cooper refused to grant a review of the trial for the murder of Miss Theora Hix, (above), Ohio State University co-ed.

electrocution. He may send a deputy warden in his place.

Mrs. Snook visited her husband this morning and remained with him for a little more than an hour. She was very attractively dressed, but her spirits appeared smothered beneath the grief which she has borne so well.

As she came from the cell in which Dr. Snook is confined in "death row," her face was ghostly white. She immediately went into the main office of the penitentiary for a conference with prison officials.

Every day since the former professor has been confined in the prison, Mrs. Snook has visited him from 1 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Perry boys are still in the race for the cup. We played Salt creek Saturday and won. Hughes was disabled so he could not play. It didn't look very favorable for Atlanta at the end of the first half. We were only one point ahead, 6-5. During last half our boys warmed up, and the score was raised till at the end of the game the score was 20 to 10, Atlanta.

The girls were not as fortunate as the boys. It was rather close going though. The count was 19 to 15 in Monroe's favor at the end of the game.

For the second and last time this year we meet New Holland in basketball. It was the first game of the season for both schools. For which will it be the last? That's the question that is foremost in the minds of the boosters of both schools. I think this will prove to be a grand and glorious fight. It will be played Thursday night, Feb. 27.

Hit 'em high! Hit 'em low! Yea-a-a-a Team! Let's go!!!

GRANGE HALL

Everybody is invited to Hill school on the evening of March 4, 1930. A community play, "Aunt Jerushey on the Warpath" will be given under auspices of church and school admission 15 and 25 cents. Come and spend a most enjoyable evening with us. Tickets on sale at Monroe-twp H. S. office, Dodds store. Grange hall or at the residence of Mr. C. C. Hinton or Mrs. James Porter. Get your tickets early.

The quarterly Sunday School convention was held at the M. E. church at Five Points the next quarterly convention will be the third Sunday in May at Hebron M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hinton and Mrs. Rance Hines of Ashville spent Sunday afternoon with their brother, Mr. C. C. Hinton, who is ill.

Mrs. Russel Pyles who was operated on at the Grant hospital, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Downs and family spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Oiler.

Don't forget the play of "Aunt Jerushey on the Warpath" at Hill school March 4, at 7:00 p.m.

JACKSON-TWP

The Jackson basketball teams met Darby teams on Jackson floor last Friday night. Jackson girls lost to Darby by a score of 17-12. Jackson boys ran far ahead of Darby with a final score of 59-6. The eighth grade girls played the eighth grade girls of South Bloomfield, losing after a hard fought battle by a score of 14-5.

The boys of the basketball team attended the Ohio State-Purdue game last Saturday night. They reported a very interesting game.

According to the tournament schedule Jackson girls play Walnut and the boys play Pickaway. These games are the last two next Friday night.

Next Friday, Feb. 21, ends the fourth six weeks' period of this term and the various classes are again preparing to attack the six weeks' examinations.

SALT CREEK-TWP.

The county tournament for Salt creek is over.

The boys gave a good account of themselves against one of the best teams in the county and until one of our best players went out of the game on fouls, the contest was evenly matched.

For a team with only two regulars from last year, with one freshman and only one hour a week for practice Salt creek boys did well.

They lost to the better team to whom Salt creek lifts the hat.

The girls did not play last week until this week against the Darby girls. You never can tell about a basketball game.

Last year Salt creek girls met the same team in its first game and defeated them easily but the two teams won and lost about the same number of games this year and the contest should be well worth watching.

Our girls play under the same handicap as the boys that of having only one hour of practice each week.

But we have no abhis; the playing alone counts.

P. T. A. MEETING

The P. T. A. meeting of last week was one of the best ever held. The attendance was more than 100. Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hunsicker of Williamsport gave a very graphic account of their trip to the West Indies and South America and their visit to Ellis Island at New York. Everyone was pleased and delighted with the whole evening.

with the present vote offer in effect it will be possible for any one of the candidates to get out and secure close to a million votes before Tuesday.

This is a real opportunity and one that every candidate should take advantage of. It lasts until Tuesday night at 5:30.

WORK WILL WIN

This is "everybody's campaign" right now; no one has the prizes "cinched," and the big rewards will go to those having the largest number of subscriptions and votes. Popularity counts for little, it's the hard worker who will win in this competition who will eventually land the big prizes to be won, all who really get out and hustle will be apt to land high.

300,000 extra votes are to be given for 25 yearly subscriptions or its equivalent, Tuesday. You will get over a cool million if you get several new ones for a year and collect in several two or three-year renewals. Votes are absolutely necessary to win the prizes and it is the writer's personal advice to every one of you that all need the votes to win. Right this week, when you have a chance to run your score into the big figure is when you should eat on the run, sleep only when you cannot sell a subscription and just keep on selling for on April 16 the candidate who has taken advantage of these early vote offers the hardest will win.

Don't slide along day after day and not do anything with the campaign. This is your campaign, and your opportunity, make the most of it. The campaign manager is anxious to assist all those interested. Let us know and your name will be withdrawn, but as long as your friends are sending in votes each day, the appreciative candidates will show their appreciation by getting busy and doing their level best to win.

Why Fat Men Stay Fat

"The trouble with me, and I guess this applies to 99% of the men who are putting on weight, I didn't have the energy or 'pep' to keep it off. Lost all interest in any healthy activity and just lazed around accumulating the old pounds until I got that 'Kruschen feeling'."

Start taking Kruschen Salts—that's the common-sense way to reduce—but don't take them with the idea that they possess reducing qualities in themselves.

This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver working in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

As a result instead of planting yourself in an easy chair every free moment and letting flabby fat accumulate you feel an urge for activity that keeps you moving around doing the things you've always wanted to do and needed to do to keep you in good condition.

Then watch the pounds slide off! Kruschen Salts are the up-to-date Fountain of Youth. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water tomorrow morning and every morning—and if they don't change your whole idea about reducing, go back and get the small price you paid for them. Get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts—lasts 4 weeks—at Hamilton & Ryan's or any progressive druggist anywhere in the world.—Adv.

For any BABY

We can never be sure just what makes an infant restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as Baby has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy, and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't, you should call a physician.

All through childhood, Castoria should be a mother's standby; and a wise mother does not change to stronger medicines as the child grows older. Castoria is readily obtained at any drugstore, and the genuine easily identified by the Chas. H. Fletcher signature that appears on every wrapper.

THEATRE TO HAVE NEW-STYLE SCREEN

New Projection Feature Will Be Second In Columbus Territory.

Announcement by E. F. Nutter of the Chifona theatre that the newly developed Magnascope Screen is to be installed in the near future, will no doubt be of interest to the theatre patrons of Circleville and vicinity. This ingenious device, technically known as the Magnascope, enlarges the dimension of the present optical system to three times its normal size, thus covering the entire proscenium or stage opening.

Installation of the new screen will require an intricate system of projection lenses and special equipment, the re-hanging of drapes and stage settings and the construction of additional back stage properties. When completed, however, the Chifona will be enabled to present the latest development in motion pictures with a realism that is extraordinarily amazing when first seen.

In acquiring the new wide-angle screen, the Chifona is leading the list of theatres in cities of many times Circleville's population, as previous installations have included only the metropolitan area. It is the second theatre to be similarly equipped in the Columbus territory, and the first in any city recording a comparative census. The local theatre, therefore, takes its place among the few outstanding houses who have brought their equipment up to the highest standards of modern theatrical requirements.

The advent of the talking picture has provided the small city with the identical program offered in the million dollar palaces of the metropolis. Proper recording and presentation therefore, rests upon the willingness of the small city theatre to install the latest and most modern developments in theatrical equipment. Thus the Chifona has done in the past and proposes to do in the future. The Magnascope, while the newest invention of its kind at the present time, is but a forerunner of marvels yet to come.

Efforts are being made to secure installation of the wide screen for the opening of Marilyn Miller's musical comedy spectacle, "Sally," next Sunday, but definite assurance cannot be made as yet.

If, as President Green of the Federation of Labor suggests, the Federations all will go back to making beer, maybe we'll have to bootleg our soft drinks and candy.

PREVENTION BY IMMUNIZATION

This protective substance is administered in three small injections one week apart. The preventative treatment is harmless and rarely causes any unpleasant effects in young children. Some of the older children may have some tenderness of the arm, perhaps a little fever, that is all. Occasionally a red spot appears at the place of inoculation which disappears within a few days. About six months after the treatment, a Schick test is given to make certain that immunity, or protection, has been established. The physician places a drop of harmless liquid in the outer layer of the skin. This procedure takes but an instant and, like the immunization treatment, leaves no scar. If, within the next four days, a red spot appears on the arm, it shows that immunity has not yet been established, and that three more protective injections are needed. If no red spot appears, as is the case in the majority of the children receiving three injections, the child is immune from diphtheria even though he may be exposed to it. The Schick test does not protect, but merely shows if the person is immune. Antitoxin may cure diphtheria, but toxin-antitoxin prevents the disease.

For any BABY

We can never be sure just what makes an infant restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as Baby has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy, and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't, you should call a physician.

All through babyhood, Castoria should be a mother's standby; and a wise mother does not change to stronger medicines as the child grows older. Castoria is readily obtained at any drugstore, and the genuine easily identified by the Chas. H. Fletcher signature that appears on every wrapper.

THEATRE TO HAVE NEW-STYLE SCREEN

New Projection Feature Will Be Second In Columbus Territory.

Announcement by E. F. Nutter of the Cliftona theatre that the newly developed Magnascope Screen is to be installed in the near future, will no doubt be of interest to the theatre patrons of Circleville and vicinity. This ingenious device, technically known as the Magnascope, enlarges the dimension of the present optical system to three times its normal size, thus covering the entire proscenium or stage opening.

Installation of the new screen will require an intricate system of projection lenses and special equipment, the re-hanging of drapes and stage settings and the construction of additional back stage properties. When completed, however, the Cliftona will be enabled to present the latest development in motion pictures with a realism that is extraordinarily amazing when first seen.

In acquiring the new wide-angle screen, the Cliftona is leading the list of theatres in cities of many times Circleville's population, as previous installations have included only the metropolitan area. It is the second theatre to be simlarly equipped in the Columbus territory, and the first in any city recording a comparative census. The local theatre, therefore, takes its place among the few outstanding houses who have brought their equipment up to the highest standards of modern theatrical requirements.

The advent of the talking picture has provided the small city with the identical program offered in the million dollar palaces of the metropolis. Proper recording and presentation therefore, rests upon the willingness of the small city theatre to install the latest and most modern developments in theatrical equipment. This the Cliftona has done in the past and proposes to do in the future. The Magnascope, while the newest invention of its kind at the present time, is but a forerunner of marvels yet to come.

Efforts are being made to secure installation of the wide screen for the opening of Marilyn Miller's musical comedy spectacle, "Sally," next Sunday, but definite assurance cannot be made as yet.

If, as President Green of the Federation of Labor suggests, the breweries all will go back to making beer, maybe we'll have to bootleg our soft drinks and candy.

The only trouble with the horse is that he lacks horsepower.

D. H. Ebert of Ashville was a Circleville visitor Wednesday.

PREVENTION BY IMMUNIZATION

This protective substance is administered in three small injections one week apart. The preventative treatment is harmless and rarely causes any unpleasant effects in young children. Some of the older children may have some tenderness of the arm, perhaps a little fever, that is all. Occasionally a red spot appears at the place of inoculation which disappears within a few days.

About six months after the treatment, a Schick test is given to make certain that immunity, or protection, has been established. The physician places a drop of harmless liquid in the outer layer of the skin. This procedure takes but an instant and, like the immunization treatment, leaves no scar. If, within the next four days, a red spot appears on the arm, it shows that immunity has not yet been established, and that three more protective injections are needed. If no red spot appears, as is the case in the majority of the children receiving three injections, the child is immune from diphtheria even though he may be exposed to it.

The Schick test does not protect, but merely shows if the person is immune. Antitoxin may cure diphtheria, but toxin-antitoxin prevents the disease.

SENSITIVE CHICAGO

Chicago hasn't so thick a hide as the rest of the country has thought. It is growing sensitive to criticism and abuse. The president of the Chicago Association of Commerce took occasion the other day to inform a press association that the city is not "broke" at all, but in better financial shape than most of our other large cities. Also that, far from being the "murder capital" and "crime center" of the world, Chicago compares favorably with other American cities in the matter of peace and order.

Now, then, has the world got so false an idea of Chicago? The Chicago News explains:
"For decades Chicago has been the target for the shafts of less prosperous and less advanced communities. So long as its vital forces continue to make it the most progressive city in the world, it will continue to be smeared with calumny. That is the penalty of frank and fearless militancy. Chicago fights its evils in the open. At this moment it is engaged in great civic works. Its moral forces are aroused. It is going forward at a pace unequalled elsewhere on this planet."

Shame on all of us envious back-biters and slanderers!

THE CURSE OF PHARAOH

Lord Westbury, aged 78, sat in his London flat, on the seventh floor of what London considers a skyscraper, amid works of ancient Egyptian art exhumed by his son Richard Bethel, from the Valley of Tombs. He thought of that son until his brain reeled. Bethel was secretary to Howard Carter, who dug up the treasures of Tutankhamen. He had died, apparently from natural causes—but it was the tenth death of men connected with the scientific spoliation of that old tomb, in which was inscribed a curse on whoever should violate it. Then the curse seemed to come upon Lord Westbury himself. He leaped from the window and crashed down 100 feet to his death.

Superstition? Of course! And yet—that explanation doesn't satisfy everybody. Many are asking, "Who next?" Carter is still living, scornful of all such superstitions, but many of his friends are secretly worried.

There is much in all our minds besides logic. "The Curse of Pharaoh"—what a movie could be made of that!

OUTGROWN?

"MASTER of MONEY," BY ROY VICKERS

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

WEALTHY Alan Brennaway is in love with Shirley Dane, beautiful, society girl, who is secretly engaged to Roger Kelton. Alan, learning that Roger is to marry Shirley, lends him $500,000. He takes as collateral shares in a Macedonia development believed worthless. After Shirley and Roger are married, Shirley, ignorant of the loan, is incensed when Roger tells her Alan is trying to force him to go to Macedonia. Receiving a tip from Cynaz, shady financier, Roger visions the reduction of his indebtedness to Alan. Jealous of Alan, Roger comes to the conclusion the loan was made because of Shirley. When Alan warns Shirley of her extravagance, she tells of her investment in Corto Bellas stock. Roger offers Alan $50,000 and Alan wonders where the money is to come from. Roger resents Alan's probing into his "personal" affairs. Next day, the stock drops considerably. That night Shirley learns that Roger has lost all her inheritance. Roger tells Shirley Alan made the loan to win her and get rid of him.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXI.
SHE was Shirley and she loved her, loved the carriage of her head and hands, loved her quick glance and ready laughter, loved the scent and sound and sight of her. Could it not have been enough for him, prig and fool that he had been? Could he not have been content to take so much—

He was forgetting. She had already given her heart to Roger Kelton.

Alan's face was grim with thoughts of Roger when he returned to the living-room with the supper-tray.

Shirley was still by the fire but she had taken off the big boots and was holding a silk-covered foot to the fire.

"This wood is all burning beautifully, Alan. It's been well dried—much better than the stuff we got. Can you lend me a pair of slippers?"

"Of a kind—yes."

He went to his bedroom and found them. They were grotesquely large for her and the sight of her feet in them amused them both. Presently she left the fire and began to flip about in the ungainly things, flinging him to fly the towel and lay the table.

"What a fine fruit for dinner!" she said, looking at the flowers on the table. "I hope you liked them. I had a whole bouquet of them for you."

"You paid a half million for me,"

Alan, not so long ago. Unless my value has decreased, there seems no reason why you should continue to lose money on the deal."

Alan's first sensation was that someone—Shirley?—had struck him violently on the chest, jostling him to his feet and then backwards, through the little room, to where such wind as could enter stirred the curtains.

He found himself, stammering, staring, leaning against the window-post as he had leaned before she came. But now there were no leaden clouds to see; only scudding darkness. . . . And what abominable thing was she saying?

Her hands were still compositely busy with the coffee things. Only his overturned chair showed that he had not dreamed her accusation. "Roger has told me everything," she was saying. "About his father and the desperate state he was in when you helped him. When you saw my name on his list of clients and lent—gave him that money so that less than half of that sum might be restored to me."

She poured out his coffee and, rising with it in her hand—he could note, even now, her absolute steadiness of nerve—she put it on the table; she righted his chair, struck a match and lit the only lamp, poured her own coffee. While she moved about, she talked.

"Roger, of course, never really intended to repay you. Roger in Macedonia! It's almost funny. And it's almost funny, too, that I could

"Are you plying me with wine so that my tongue may be loosened?"

"You paid a half million for me,"

"You paid a half million for me,"

"You paid a half million for me,"

"You paid a half million for me,"

Speedy Care Essential in Croup

When Child Is Attacked Suddenly by This Disease, Quick, Intelligent Action Is Needed.

By R. S. COPELAND, M. D.
U. S. Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health New York City.

THERE are some things which always strike terror to the heart of a mother. The very mention of croup seems to paralyze thought—and yet here is a time when intelligent and quick action is needed.

Years ago many physical ailments were not fully understood. Some diseases, which were formerly considered as separate diseases, are now found to be identical. What was once known as old-fashioned "membranous croup" is really a mild diphtheria.

Another disease, which used to be known as "false croup" is now called "spasmodic laryngitis."

The larynx is that part of the throat situated between the windpipe and the base of the tongue. The mucous membrane lining of it may become, and does become, highly inflamed in croup.

This dreaded croup attacks a child between the ages of two and five usually. It may begin with what seems like a mild cold, possibly with some fever. At other times, there may be no warning at all, but a sudden attack after a child gets his first sleep at night.

In a sudden attack, a child is awakened gasping for breath. He has a slight, barking cough. This cough is peculiar in that it is a series of sounds, with a sort of ringing noise. The child has the greatest difficulty in getting his breath. The mucous membrane is so swollen that there is scarcely room for a bit of air to get through.

The child becomes feverish, and the pulse is rapid. The difficulty breathing usually frightens the child so much that he wants to be taken to a doctor.

Heroic measures must be taken to relieve the swelling of the membrane of the throat. The first thing to do is to send for a doctor, and, while waiting, give the child a hot bath at a temperature of about 100 degrees.

Be careful not to have the water so hot as to scald the child. Try the effect of the water on your own elbow. The child should be kept in the bath from fifteen to twenty minutes. At the same time, apply cold compresses to his throat.

Sometimes a hot footbath, into which a teaspoonful of mustard has been added, is adequate to draw the blood from the upper part of the body, giving relief to the sufferer.

It is wise to give an emetic in the form of syrup of ipecac, or syrup of squills in order to produce vomiting and relieve the gathering of mucus in the throat.

As this dreaded croup is really a dangerous disease, your doctor is needed because he will know what to do. There is also a treatment called "intubation," in which a tube is inserted into the throat through the mouth so that the child may breathe.

As croup is diphtheritic, the patient should be isolated.

Answers to Health Queries
DAILY READER, Q.—What aches goitre?

C. W. S. Q.—Will lack of iodine cause goitre?

A.—Yes.

2.—You should include in your diet all foods containing iodine. For further information, send a self-addressed stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Theatres

AT THE GRAND

Betty Compson in "The Belle of Broadway," a romance of little New York in the early days is the feature attraction at the Grand theatre Thursday evening. The story is of an amazing woman who risked all for the sake of love and lost.

The 11th chapter of "Tarzan the Tiger" is another Grand attraction.

AT THE CIFTONA

A splendid vehicle is provided for Clara Bow, the "It" girl in the picture, "The Saturday Night Kid"—her third all-talking production which is at the Ciftona theatre Thursday.

The play deals with the lives of the lads and lassies who earn their livings in the big department stores of the metropolis. The "It" girl herself is "The Saturday Night Kid."

Miss Bow in "The Fleet's In" and Edna May Oliver, character actress of the New York stage, provide the leading support for the flaming-haired Brooklyn actress.

For COLDS

We all catch colds and they can make us miserable; but yours needn't last long if you will do this: Take two or three tablets of Bayer Aspirin just as soon as possible after a cold starts. Stay in the house if you can—keep warm. Repeat with another tablet or two of Bayer Aspirin every three or four hours, if those symptoms of cold persist. Take a good laxative when you retire, and keep bowels open. If throat is sore, dissolve three tablets in a quarter-glassful of water and gargle. This soothes inflammation and reduces infection. There is nothing like Bayer Aspirin for a cold, or sore throat. And it relieves aches and pains almost instantly. The genuine tablets, marked Bayer, are absolutely harmless to the heart.

SENSITIVE CHICAGO

Chicago hasn't so thick a hide as the rest of the country has thought. It is growing sensitive to criticism and abuse. The president of the Chicago Association of Commerce took occasion the other day to inform a press association that the city is not "broke" at all, but in better financial shape than most of our other large cities. Also that, far from being the "murder capital" and "crime center" of the world, Chicago compares favorably with other American cities in the matter of peace and order.

How, then, has the world got so false an idea of Chicago? The Chicago News explains:

"For decades Chicago has been the target for the shafts of less prosperous and less advanced communities. So long as its vital forces continue to make it the most progressive city in the world, it will continue to be smeared with calumny. That is the penalty of frank and fearless militancy. Chicago fights its evils in the open. At this moment it is engaged in great civic works. Its moral forces are aroused. It is going forward at a pace unequalled elsewhere on this planet."

Shame on all of us envious backbiters and slanderers!

THE CURSE OF PHARAOH

Lord Westbury, aged 78, sat in his London flat, on the seventh floor of what London considers a skyscraper, amid works of ancient Egyptian art exhumed by his son Richard Bethell, from the Valley of Tombs. He thought of that son until his brain reeled. Bethell was secretary to Howard Carter, who dug up the treasures of Tutankhamen. He had died, apparently from natural causes—but it was the tenth death of men connected with the scientific spoliation of that old tomb, in which was inscribed a curse on whoever should violate it. Then the curse seemed to come upon Lord Westbury himself. He leaped from the window and crashed down 100 feet to his death.

Superstition? Of course! And yet—that explanation doesn't satisfy everybody. Many are asking, "Who next?" Carter is still living, scornful of all such superstitions, but many of his friends are secretly worried.

There is much in all our minds besides logic. "The Curse of Pharaoh"—what a movie could be made of that!

"MASTER of MONEY," BY ROY VICKERS

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

WEALTHY Alan Brennaway is in love with Shirley Dane, beautiful, society girl, who is secretly engaged to Roger Kelton. Alan, learning that Roger is to marry Shirley, lends him $500,000. He takes as collateral shares in a Macedonia development believed worthless. After Shirley and Roger are married, Shirley, ignorant of the loan, is incensed when Roger tells her Alan is trying to force him to go to Macedonia. Receiving a tip from Cynaz, shady financier, Roger visions the reduction of his indebtedness to Alan. Jealous of Alan, Roger comes to the conclusion the loan was made because of Shirley. When Alan warns Shirley of her extravagance, she tells of her investment in Corto Bellas stock. Roger offers Alan $50,000 and Alan wonders where the money is to come from. Roger resents Alan's probing into his "personal" affairs. Next day, the stock drops considerably. That night Shirley learns that Roger has lost all her inheritance. Roger tells Shirley Alan made the loan to win her and get rid of him.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXI.
SHE was Shirley and she loved her, loved the carriage of her head and hands, loved her quick glance and ready laughter, loved the scent and sound and sight of her. Could it not have been enough for him, prig and fool that he had been? Could he not have been content to take so much—He was forgetting. She had already given her heart to Roger Kelton. Kelton!

Alan's face was grim with thoughts of Kelton when he returned to the living-room with the supper-tray.

Shirley was still by the fire but she had taken off the big boots and was holding a silk-covered foot to the fire.

"This wood is all burning beautifully, Alan. It's been well dried—much better than the stuff we get. Can you lend me a pair of slippers?"

"Of a kind—yes." He went to his bedroom and found them. They were grotesquely large for her and the sight of her feet in them amused Alan both. Presently she left the fire and began to flap about in the ungainly things, helping him to tidy the room and lay the table.

"We will have fruit for decoration instead of flowers," she said, and brought a heaped dish of apples to the feast.

"How glossy they are!" While he waited for her to be seated, she lingered over the apples, picked one up, caressing its firm flesh. There was a smile on her lips that distressed him.

"Shirley, my dear, what is it?" "Just thinking about apples, Alan; that's all. Such a beautiful thing to lose Eden for. Perhaps it was worth it—I wonder?"

He was silent. He could not gauge her mood. He could only watch her, his own lassitude thrust aside and forgotten.

They sat down. He waited deftly upon her, urging her to eat and drink. He had added a bottle of wine to the meal and would have kept her glass filled but she would only sip a little now and then.

"Are you playing me with wine so that my tongue may be loosened?" she demanded after his third attempt. She flashed him a smile. He returned it.

"Could you blame me?" "Shirley, my dear, what is it?" "How did you get fed in your mining camp, Alan?"

In the event it was his tongue that was loosened. With a skill he only marked later, in memory, she drew him to speak of Mexico. Mexico as he had known it, wrestled with it, loved and hated and conquered it. He pictured it all for her, while the wind and rain shrieked against the cottage. He lived at again.

It was the beating of the wind and rain that recalled him. "Look here!" he protested. "I've been monopolizing everything, including the conversation. You've eaten and drunk next to nothing, Alan, not so long ago. Unless my value has decreased, there seems no reason why you should continue to lose money on the deal."

Alan's first sensation was that someone—Shirley—had struck him violently on the chest, jostling him to his feet and then backwards, through the little room, to where such wind as could enter stirred the curtains.

He found himself, stammering, staring, leaning against the window-post as he had leaned before she came. But now there were no leaden clouds to see; only scudding darkness. And what abominable thing was she saying?

Her hands were still composedly busy with the coffee things. Only his overturned chair showed that he had not dreamed her accusation. "Roger has told me everything," she was saying. "About his father and the desperate state he was in when you helped him. When you saw my name on his list of clients and lent—gave him that money so that less than half of that sum might be restored to me."

She poured out his coffee and, rising with it in her hand—he could note, even now, her absolute steadiness of nerve—she put it on the table; she righted his chair, struck a match and lit the only lamp, poured her own coffee. While she moved about, she talked.

"Roger, of course, never really intended to repay you. Roger in Macedonia! It's almost funny. And it's almost funny, too, that I could make as good a job as I can of yours."

"Yes. Let me make you some coffee, Alan."

He repressed further protests. You could not drive Shirley; presently, perhaps, she would be led.

He got her the coffee and water and sugar she wanted and then sat down and watched her make the good-smelling stuff. You could not drive Shirley.

She was crouched down upon the rug, measuring, stirring and pouring. He looked down upon the slender column of her neck, the slope of her shoulders. For a moment, his hands, following his gaze, hovered, closing and unclosing. And in that moment she looked up at him.

Speedy Care Essential in Croup

When Child Is Attacked Suddenly by This Disease, Quick, Intelligent Action Is Needed.

By R. S. COPELAND, M. D.
U. S. Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health New York City.

THERE are some things which always strike terror to the heart of a mother. The very mention of croup seems to paralyze thought—and yet here is a time when intelligent and quick action is needed.

Years ago many physical ailments were not fully understood. Some diseases, which were formerly considered as separate diseases, are now found to be identical. What was once known as old-fashioned "membranous croup" is really a mild diphtheria.

Another disease, which used to be known as "false croup" is now called "spasmodic laryngitis."

The larynx is that part of the throat situated between the wind pipe and the base of the tongue. The mucous membrane lining of it may become, and does become, highly inflamed in croup.

This dreaded croup attacks a child between the ages of two and five usually. It may begin with what seems like a mild cold, possibly with some fever. At other times, there may be no warning at all, but a sudden attack after a child gets his first sleep at night.

In a sudden attack, a child is awakened gasping for breath. He has a slight, barking cough. This cough is peculiar in that it is metallic sounding, with a sort of ringing noise. The child has the greatest difficulty in getting his breath. The mucous membrane is so swollen that there is scarcely room for a bit of air to get through.

The child becomes feverish, and his pulse is rapid. He is difficult to breathe usually frightens the child so much that he wants to be taken up and carried.

Heroic measures must be taken to relieve the swelling of the membrane of the throat. The first thing to do is to send for a doctor, and, while awaiting his coming, the child should be put into a hot bath at a temperature of about 100 degrees. Be careful not to have the water so hot as to scald the child. Try the seat of the water on your own elbow. The child should be kept in the bath from fifteen to twenty minutes. At the same time, apply cold compresses to his throat.

Sometimes a hot footbath, into which a teaspoonful of mustard has been added, is adequate to draw the blood from the upper part of the body, giving relief to the sufferer.

It is wise to give an emetic in the form of syrup of ipecac, or syrup of squills in order to produce vomiting and relieve the gathering of mucus in the throat.

As this dreaded croup is really a dangerous disease, your doctor is needed because he will know what to do. There is also a treatment called "intubation," in which a tube is inserted into the throat, through the mouth so that the child may breathe.

As croup is diphtheritic, the patient should be isolated.

AT THE GRAND

Betty Compson in "The Belle of Broadway," a romance of little New York in the early days is the feature attraction at the Grand theatre Thursday evening. The story is of an amazing woman who risked all for the sake of love and lost.

The 11th chapter of "Tarzan the Tiger," is another Grand attraction.

AT THE CLIFTONA

A splendid vehicle is provided for Clara Bow, the "It" girl in the picture, "The Saturday Night Kid"—her third all-talking production which is at the Cliftona theatre Thursday.

The play deals with the lives of the lads and lassies who earn their livings in the big department stores of the metropolis. The "It" girl herself is "The Saturday Night Kid." It is a role that calls for a full range of the emotions. She sages, she pouts, she loves. She wears coy costumes and formal ones.

James Hall, who played opposite Miss Bow in "The Fleet's In" and Edna May Oliver, character actress of the New York stage, provide the leading support for the flaming-haired Brooklyn actress. Miss Oliver has appeared in a number of pictures made in the east and took part in 35 Broadway productions. She began her theatrical career in New York in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

A rowdy friend wants to know when scientists are going to isolate the prohibition germ.

For COLDS

We all catch colds and they can make us miserable; but yours needn't last long if you will do this: Take two or three tablets of Bayer Aspirin just as soon as possible after a cold starts. Stay in the house if you can—keep warm. Repeat with another tablet or two of Bayer Aspirin every three or four hours, if those symptoms of cold persist. Take a good laxative when you retire, and keep bowels open. If throat is sore, dissolve three tablets in a quarter-glassful of water and gargle. This soothes inflammation and reduces infection. There is nothing like Bayer Aspirin for a cold, or sore throat. And it relieves aches and pains almost instantly. The genuine tablets, marked Bayer, are absolutely harmless to the heart.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

FIRE DAMAGE $1,500,000

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 27.—A spectacular fire which destroyed the huge paint shop of the Big Four Railroad at Beech Grove, causing a loss estimated at $1,500,000 was brought under control after a hard night today.

The flames were fed by hundreds of gallons of paint.

Beech Grove and Indianapolis firemen battled the flames for hours and succeeded in confining them to one building.

The origin of the fire has not yet been determined. It broke out in the stock of paints and was discovered by a nightwatchman.

Benjamin Orr, superintendent of the Big Four car department, estimated the loss at $1,500,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Federal law enforcement agencies were in close touch with communists activities today following the unemployment demonstration in various parts of the United States yesterday.

At the department of justice it was declared, however, the federal government can reach these radicals only when they make threats or demonstrations against high public officials, damage government property or interfere with the mails.

Where communists damage private property or demonstrate against state or local officials they are answerable to state laws.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—With the length of France's absence from the London naval conference still an indefinite matter, the delegates of the other four powers today bent their efforts to the solution of the knotty problems facing them without the aid of the French. However, it was clearly understood that all negotiations would have to await the return of the French delegates before any definite decisions could be made.

GERMINATION TESTS SHOW VARIATION

Mrs. Sark Reports Test Results Held In and Near Ashville—Grade Good.

The results of early germination tests on seed corn indicate a wide variation of different lots produced on the same farm. The unfavorable weather conditions, accompanying the harvesting period and the severe freezing weather prior to the time that the crop had had an opportunity to dry out, has created in many localities a critical seed corn situation.

In Pickaway-co, however, it appears that where men are willing to take the precaution of culling their seed corn closely and running germination tests, that there will be a sufficient amount of seed corn to take care of our corn growers.

Unless farmers run a germination test to find out whether their seed will grow, the few sources of reliable seed may have been purchased by outsiders before the local growers discover the true condition of his own seed.

Mrs. J. M. Sark, who is conducting a seed corn testing service for growers about Ashville, reports the following tests:

Harman Wright, 700 ears, germination test of 95 per cent.

Harman Wright also had a 300 ear lot which tested 65 per cent.

Donald Courtwright, 200 ears, 92 per cent.

H. O. Peters, 400 ears, 65 per cent.

Edna Hedges, 220 ears, 96 per cent.

J. W. Teegardin, 140 ears, 95 per cent.

John W. Hay, 210 ears, 72 per cent.

With the above results, the importance of germinating seed corn may readily be realized.

Test your seed corn and insure your crop prospects for 1931.

It Is Folly To Stay Fat

The proof is everywhere. In every circle you can see that excess fat is disappearing. Modern science has found a major cause of excess fat in a weak gland. In late years, physicians the world over have been fighting that cause. They do not rely on starvation.

This modern method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. Each box contains the formula, as prepared by famous experts. People have used these tablets for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now nearly all have friends who show the results in new beauty, health and vigor.

Go try Marmola. Test the right way to reduce. The results will amaze and delight you. All druggists supply Marmola at $1 a box.

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—men who would keep that trim, proper form, eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the lithe, youthful, modern figure.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize your form by drastic diets, harmful reducing pills, fake reducing tablets or other quick "anti-fat" remedies recommended by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous schemes. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will burn your fat figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you reach for a "Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

FIRE DAMAGE $1,500,000

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 27.—A spectacular fire which destroyed the huge paint shop of the Big Four Railroad at Beech Grove, causing a loss estimated at $1,500,000 was brought under control after a hard night today.

The flames were fed by hundreds of gallons of paint.

Beech Grove and Indianapolis firemen battled the flames for hours and succeeded in confining them to one building.

The origin of the fire has not yet been determined. It broke out in the stock of paints and was discovered by a nightwatchman.

Benjamin Orr, superintendent of the Big Four car department, estimated the loss at $1,500,000.

Columbus of Antarctic Reports New Land

Capt. Hjalmar Russen-Larsen, of the Norwegian expedition, which is reported to have discovered new land in the Antarctic. The uncharted icy wastes which have been dragged out of the mists lie 71 degrees south latitude and 12 degrees west longitude. This would bring it approximately between Enderby Land and Coats Land.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Federal law enforcement agencies were in close touch with communists activities today following the unemployment demonstration in various parts of the United States yesterday.

At the department of justice it was declared, however, the federal government can reach these radicals only when they make threats or demonstrations against high public officials, damage government property or interfere with the mails.

Where communists damage private property or demonstrate against state or local officials they are answerable to state laws.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—With the length of France's absence from the London naval conference still an indefinite matter, the delegates of the other four powers today bent their efforts to the solution of the knotty problems facing them without the aid of the French. However, it was clearly understood that all negotiations would have to await the return of the French delegates before any definite decisions could be made.

Far-Off Yet Near

Referring to the Andromeda nebula, a galaxy of stars so distant that 1,000,000 years are required for its light to come to us. "The astonishing fact," says Dr. Forest Ray Moulton, distinguished astronomer, "is not that these exterior galaxies are so far away, but that they are so near that their distances can be approximately measured."

Electricity From Rug

The bureau of standards says that electricity generated by walking on a heavy rug is a common experience in winter, when the heated air indoors is very dry. There is no effective way of preventing such charges except increasing the humidity of the air. The electrical energy is small.

GERMINATION TESTS SHOW VARIATION

Mrs. Sark Reports Test Results Held In and Near Ashville—Grade Good.

The results of early germination tests on seed corn indicate a wide variation of different lots produced on the same farm. The unfavorable weather conditions, accompanying the harvesting period and the severe freezing weather prior to the time that the crop had had an opportunity to dry out, has created in many localities a critical seed corn situation.

In Pickaway-co, however, it appears that where men are willing to take the precaution of culling their seed corn closely and running germination tests, that there will be a sufficient amount of seed corn to take care of our corn growers.

Unless farmers run a germination test to find out whether their seed will grow, the few sources of reliable seed may have been purchased by outsiders before the local growers discover the true condition of his own seed.

Mrs. J. M. Sark, who is conducting a seed corn testing service for growers about Ashville, reports the following tests:

Harman Wright, 700 ears, germination test of 95 per cent.

Harman Wright also had a 300 ear lot which tested 65 per cent.

Donald Courtwright, 200 ears, 92 per cent.

H. O. Peters, 400 ears, 65 per cent.

Ezra Hedges, 220 ears, 96 per cent.

J. W. Teegardin, 140 ears, 95 per cent.

John W. Hay, 240 ears, 72 per cent.

With the above results, the importance of germinating seed corn may readily be realized.

Test your seed corn and insure your crop prospects for 1930.

It Is Folly To Stay Fat

The proof is everywhere. In every circle you can see that excess fat is disappearing fast. Modern science has found a major cause of excess fat in a weakened gland. In late years, physicians the world over have been fighting that cause. They do not rely on starvation.

This modern method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. Each box contains the formula, as prepared by famous experts. People have used these tablets for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now nearly all have friends who show the results in new beauty, health and vigor.

Go try Marmola. Test the right way to reduce. The results will amaze and delight you. All druggists supply Marmola at $1 a box.

"SHAPE AND FASHION—such things will remain"

(Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1807-1882)

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—men who would keep that trim, proper form, eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the lithe, youthful, modern figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

Gordon Tires Pull Surprise To Defeat Club

TIREMEN COME THROUGH WITH AMAZING FORM; SCORE 27-21

Don White Leads Scorers As Courtright and Pickens Hold Steele To Six Points—Hanley Sews Game With Four Points Early In Last Period.

Something happened. No one seems to really know what it was. Some say the Gordons played over their heads. Others say the Club was over-confident. Still others report the Gordons were lucky, but coming right down to brass tacks, everyone admits that the game played at C.A.C. Wednesday evening was one of the best and most exciting contests that has been played on the Club court this year.

The score was 27-21; the Club was never in the lead and a peculiar feature of the game was that only one man went out on four personal fouls. That man was Dordy Courtright, and instead of being ejected in the first few minutes as he, and most everyone else had expected, his expulsion didn't come until the Gordon team had the Club demoralized to a large extent.

DON WHITE HITS
Each member of the Gordon team covered himself with glory, and none did any better than Don White, who played a forward for the Tires. White played his usual hard-driving style of basketball, and after playing a number of games in which he scored one or two goals, snapped into real form Wednesday evening to lead the scorers with three goals and a like number of fouls. Howard White played a mighty keen floor game and kept the Gordon play under his control. Barnes played good ball at the tipoff position; Pickens was a bear on defense and Courtright played better ball than he has played this season, and also was permitted to remain in the game longer than he has in most instances.

Doc Hanley, who entered the game when Courtright went out, broke into the play with a zeal and scored a goal and two free throws to give the Gordons a few "cincher" points.

Chick Pearce, referee, said after the game that he had never seen the Club play such poor basketball. Art Steele failed to connect on but two of nine free throws. Boyce Parks missed numerous shots, as did the rest of the Club team.

Howard White scored the first goal from close in and from that time on the Club never took the lead. In the first six minutes of play the tight Gordon man-to-man defense had the Club tied so tightly that they did not score a point, something they have failed to do this year.

SET RECORD
Another thing the Gordon defense did was to hold the Club to a lower number of points than it has been held this year.

After the Gordons had scored six points, the Club scored and the score at the end of the period was 8-7 in favor of the Gordons. With Don White doing most of the scoring, the Tires took a lead of 15-12.

The third period was extremely hot and at the end of play the Tires still led 19-17. The Gordons scored eight points in the final period while the Club was hitting for but four to give the Tires a victory.

Gladiators of the Ring Meet in Miami Feb. 27

JOHNNY RISKO, VITTORIO CAMPOLO, JACK SHARKEY, PHIL SCOTT.
As the gong sounds in the ring at Miami on February 27, in one of the most heralded fights of recent times, Jack Sharkey, of Boston, will meet Phil Scott, of England, in a match which will carry the victor along another step on the road to the heavyweight throne. Johnny Risko, the Cleveland rubber man, is scheduled for a setto with Vittorio Campolo, of the Argentine, in the semi-final bout.

FANS EXPECT SLAUGHTER IN SHARKEY BOUT

Noone Concedes Phil Scott a Chance Against Big Boston Heavyweight.

MIAMI, Feb. 27.—Much as a morbid throng would go to view a hanging or some sinister spectacle, thousands of winter tourists will take their places in Madison Square Garden's new octagonal, wooden stadium here tonight fully expecting to witness the annihilation of Phil Scott of London by Jack Sharkey of Boston. The event has been advertised as a fifteen round boxing contest but the customers believe it will be a slaughter.

Nobody concedes Phil a chance, except possibly his manager, his towel wielders and a few friends from abroad. The crowd is going on there with the idea of seeing the blighter take a trouncing or execute one of his famous falls.

The betting odds are 5 to 1, with Sharkey the favorite to win, and by ringtime probably will be 7 to 1 or better. It is high impossible to find a soul who will wager a pound on the Englishman to beat the terrible Sharkey person.

Sharkey will go into the ring probably the most prohibitive favorite in the history of any major fight. Gene Tunney, the retired heavyweight champion, was a 6 to 1 favorite to win over Tom Heeney, but the fans do not think Scott's chances against Sharkey's are nearly as good as Heeney's against Tunney.

DERBY

A large crowd attended the P. T. A. meeting last Thursday night. There were some excellent numbers by the children of the grades and the high school orchestra. Dr. Poppen of the Grove City Lutheran church gave an interesting and instructive talk on his trip to England. The next regular meeting will be March 21.

Our boys lost to New Holland, 31 to 13, in the County tournament last Saturday. The girls won from Washington-twop 19 to 8. The girls will play Salter Creek next Thursday night, and the winner of that game will play Walnut Friday night.

Do not forget the date of the Operetta, March 7 and 8 at 8:00 p.m. Reserved seats will go on sale in the superintendent's office, Monday, March 3.

Score Impressive 44-18 Victory Over Morrison Club In Prelim.

With Dutch Weffer and Joe Glitt leading the scorers with 17 and 13 points respectively, the Grant Flying Clouds easily defeated the Morrison Club of Columbus in a preliminary Wednesday evening. The score was 44-18.

The first period of the game was hotly fought with neither team holding much of an advantage. In the second period, however, the Clouds started their real offensive and at the end of the session had built a lead of 28-11 which they increased as the game progressed.

Weffer scored 17 points, 16 of them in the first half, while Glitt divided his through the game. Every member of the Cloud team contributed to the scoring.

BEST FOR INDIGESTION

Thousands With Poor, Weak Stomachs Now Taking Pepsin In New Liquid Form.

PHARMACISTS PRAISE IT

Stops Acute Kind In Few Minutes—What a Blessing.

Here's a delightful elixir with plenty of real pepsin, some Menthol and just enough of several other stomach correctives to make it capable of putting almost any weak, rundown, abused stomach in first class shape—and it tastes like the most palatable nectar.

The men who created this supremely good formula know their business—they don't believe in nasty tasting medicine and the people are with them for Dare's Mentha Pepsin—that's the name—is having a tremendous sale all over the country. They have passed along the word to every druggist in the country that if Dare's Mentha Pepsin doesn't bring serene comfort to any wornout, rundown, sickly, gassy stomach that the owner of that most important internal organ can have his or her money back.

Stubborn indigestion of years standing is hard to get rid of, but Dare's Mentha Pepsin will do it; one enthusiastic druggist asserts, "It's real pepsin in liquid form—the right way to take pepsin. Jamison & Ryan always have a big supply on hand.—Adv.

ROBTOWN
Sunday night was the close of a very successful three weeks' revival meeting at this place.
Much good was done through these meetings.
Our next aid will be March 13 at the home of Mrs. Nellie Fosnaugh assisted by her daughter,
Mrs. Cora Wilson and Mrs. Mary
Leach and Mrs. Frank Hudson.
Every one is welcome.
Miss J. R. Hott spent several days of the past week with relatives in Dayton.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoover of Columbus were Sunday guests of
Mr. Hoover's mother, Mrs. Ella
Hoover.
The children of Mr. and Mrs.
Max Steele have measles and pneumonia.
Mr. J. I. Wolford has a new

Mrs. Laura Hott and family entertained to dinner Sunday her brother, Mr. Dewey Huffer and wife of Columbus.
Mrs. Effie Embleton, the gospel singer, who assisted in our revival meeting the last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Florence of Columbus and new baby spent Sunday with Mrs. Florence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Koch and family.
Rev. Hampshire has been giving us some real good sermons for the past two weeks which have helped many of us and much good has come from them. The meetings will go on all of this week, including Saturday night.
Our Aid was interestingly entertained Thursday, Feb. 13, at the home of Mrs. Jim Wolford assisted by Mrs. Nannie Malone and Mrs. Laura Hott and Mrs.
Scott Cardiff. Our next meeting

ROBTOWN

Sunday night was the close of a very successful three weeks' revival meeting at this place. Much good was done through these meetings.

Our next aid will be March 13 at the home of Mrs. Nellie Fossnaugh assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Coit Wilson and Mrs. Mary Leach and Mrs. Frank Hudson. Every one is welcome.

Mrs. J. R. Hott spent several days of the past week with relatives in Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoover of Columbus were Sunday guests of Mr. Hoover's mother, Mrs. Ella Hoover.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Max Steele have measles and pneumonia.

Mr. J. I. Wolford has a new Olds sedan.

Mrs. Laura Hott and family entertained to dinner Sunday her brother, Mr. Dewey Huffer and wife of Columbus.

Mrs. Effie Embleton, the gospel singer, who assisted in our revival meeting the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Florence of Columbus and new baby spent Sunday with Mrs. Florence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Koch and family.

Rev. Hampshire has been giving us some real good sermons for two weeks which have helped many of us and much good has come from them. The meetings will go on all of this week, including Saturday night.

Our Aid was interestingly entertained Thursday, Feb. 13, at the home of Mrs. Jim Wolford assisted by Mrs. Nannie Malone and Mrs. Laura Hott and Mrs. Scott Cardiff. Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Nellie Fossnaugh.

Mr. Floyd Fortner and R. L. Rowe attended the funeral of Mr. Nelson Warner in Circleville Monday afternoon.

Mrs. George Isham entertained to dinner Sunday Mr. Isham's mother of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill of near Orient and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hott.

The two older children of Mr. and Mrs. Max Steele are quite poorly with the grip.

Miss Evelyn Fortner, who has been real poorly, and who has been in Ashville for a week or more, being taken care of by her aunt, Mrs. Charley Fortner, expects to be able to return to her home one day this week.

Paul Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thompson, has the measles at this writing.

TARLTON

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hedges, daughter Miriam and Mrs. Myrtle Reichelderfer spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kessler of Columbus.

George Lathouse and Jennie Cave of Stoutsville, and Miss Diana Leist of Columbus, spent Sunday with their cousin, Charles A. Valentine and family.

Ray McClelland and family of Drinkle, were guests of Mrs. Katherine Anderson, Sunday.

Miss Minnie Delong came home from Columbus Thursday for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Wayne Reichelderfer has returned home after several weeks' nursing at the home of Mr. George Pontious near Circleville.

Members of the Lutheran Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Leman Pritchard, Friday and noon.

Mrs. Grace Spangler and son

James, of Columbus, were here Sunday to attend the funeral of John Strous.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid Society were entertained in the basement of the church by Mrs. James Reichelderfer, Mrs. Jacob Reid, Mrs. Francis Morahan and Mrs. Porter Hiatt, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Valentine attended the funeral of Nelson Warner at Circleville, Monday afternoon.

Harry Kuhn, a student of Ohio University, Athens, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuhn.

PARTY

The Misses Merle Kuhn and Mary Valentine entertained a number of friends to a party at the latter's home Saturday evening. Those present were: Misses Lucille and Mabel Aldenderfer, Ruby Kuhn, Esther Hartranft, Adeline and Louise Pritchard, Margaret Hiatt, Minnie Delong, and Mabel Valentine, Messrs. Merrell and Richard Lape, Harold Stump, Harry Kohler, Leewood Chambers, Waldo Aldenderfer, Leslie McClelland, Luther Heigle, Howard Hartranft, Marvin Kuhn and Robert Delong.

The evening was much enjoyed by all, each one hoping to enjoy more parties in the future.

Film Favorites to Sing In Whiteman Hour

Lillian Roth and Joe Wagstaff, guest artists on the Paul Whiteman-Old Gold Hour.

STEPPING out of her latest role in the new Paramount talkie, "Honey," Miss Lillian Roth, young and vivacious star of many a Broadway operetta, will grace the Paul Whiteman-Old Gold Hour, Tuesday evening, March 4, on the Columbia coast-to-coast network.

With her at the microphone will be another screen favorite in the person of Joe Wagstaff, aristocratic star of the latest Fox films, "Song of Kentucky" and "Let's Go Places."

Accompanying this duet will be Sam Coslow, Tin Pan Alley's prolific song writer, composer of Success Suggestion

"Do what you like and like what you do afterward," says a correspondent in Farm and Fireside.

"Bebe," "Wanta," "Not Yet Suzette" and other hits. Miss Roth, actress practically from her cradle days, enjoys the reputation of having been featured by the Shuberts, Flo Ziegfeld, Earl Carroll, Texas Guinan and now Jesse Lasky. She is still in her teens, yet she boasts successes from the early age of 6. Having won honors through the length of Broadway, she now finds herself the star of Paramount's latest picture, "Honey."

The broadcast, in which Miss Roth, Wagstaff and Coslow will be featured, goes on the air at 9, eastern standard time.
